of the State of Mississippi. 1840.
Henry H. Pease,
Joseph M. Cardozo, et. al.

UPON opening the matters of this bill, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, John Lehr, is not an inhabitant of this State, but resides beyond the limits thereof, so that the ordinary process of this Court cannot be executed on him: Therefore it is ordered, that unless said defendant appear before the Chancellor, at the court room in the town of Jackson, on the first Monday of June next, and plead, answer or demur to said bill of complaint, the several allegations therein contained will be taken for confessed, as to him, and such order and decree made therein as the Chancellor may deem equitable and just. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in the Yazoo City Whig, once a week for two months successively.

UPON opening the matters of this bill,
the Court, that the defendants, Edward Ford, Nicholas W. Ford and H. D. Smodes, are not inhabitants of this State, but reside beyond the limits thereof, so that the ordinary
on them: Therefore, it is ordered, that unless said defendants appear before the Chancellor at the court room in Jackson the first Monday in December next, and plead answer or demur to the bill of complaint aforesaid, the several allegations therein contained will be taken for

CAUTION.
ALL persons are hereby forewarned from trading for four several notes, executed by me to David H. Hoopes and Wm. T.
Purnell, partners in Port Gibson in the practice of law. Two notes were executed in or about the 15th day of January, 1838—The one to David H. Hoopes, for the sum of three hundred and seventy-five dollars, and another to Wm. T. Purnell for the same sum of money, and being in or about the same date, and each of the first notes were payable I think, about six months after date.
The two other notes were in like manner executed, the one to David H. Hoopes, in amount five hundred dollars each note. The said notes were executed about twelve months since. This is to caution all persons from trading for the said notes described above, as the consideration has utterly and entirely failed for which they were severally executed; and to forewarn all persons from paying to said Hoopes & Purnell any debt due to me.

A CARD.

HAVING established ourselves in the city of Vicksburg, with the view of facilitating the business of the houses of Hart, Butler & Co. of New Orleans with the Planter in this section of the state. We wish a share of public patronage, we feel ourselves fully competent to afford the usual facilities to the planters which has heretofore been extended to them by the number of well known established houses, both of this city and the city of New Orleans.

We are assured to say to the Planter that the house in New Orleans has taken out an open policy of insurance which extends to the waters of the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri rivers, and all their tributaries, which advantage it is to the planter when shipping his cotton to the house of Hart, Butler & Co. and informing them, or the house of A. Hart Jr. & Co. of the shipment; to either house it will be considered fully insured and protected from loss or damage.

We will receive and forward cotton, and will at all times be prepared to sell bills of Exchange on New Orleans in sums to suit purchasers, at sight.

PROPOSALS
FOR PUBLISHING A WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER IN THE CITY OF VICKSBURG, TO BE CALLED THE HARRISON BANNER.
By Wm. H. McCABER and A. LINDSEY, Editors of the Vicksburg Whig.

The object of this paper is expressed by its name.—It is intended to advocate the claims of WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON OF OHIO, to the Presidential Chair, not from a desire to elevate him as a man, but as the representative of those great principles for which the true friends of republican government have contended from the time of the revolution to the present day. In order to effect this object, we shall endeavor to show by reference to the records of the country, by the production of facts, arguments and illustrations, that the doctrines now and heretofore advocated by GENE-RAL HARRISON and his friends, are those inculcated by Washington and Jefferson, and avowed, but not acted on, by Andrew Jackson. We shall produce authentic documents in the shape of votes, bills, resolutions, reports, &c., which will prove that a portion of the most prominent men at present in the administration party of the United States, were the original supporters of the old blue-light federal party at the time of the Hartford Convention; that the government as now conducted must ultimately become a consolidated monarchy; that our tenets, equally removed from aristocracy, on the one side and mobocracy on the other, are those alone upon which a republican government can be so conducted as to advance the welfare and happiness of its own citizens, and elevate its character for honor and integrity with foreigners. In short, that truth, reason and experience, sustain the position which the Whig party of the country hold now, and ever have held, and that the life, services and character of Gen. Harrison, are such as to warrant the conclusion that he will carry them out in every particular.

In undertaking this publication, the Editors have no private ends to advance, no personal interests to subserve. If the actual and indispensable expenses of the paper can be met, they are content to devote the time and labor which may be required of them, to that old cause for which they have ever struggled, and to the success of which they now look forward with a degree of confidence almost amounting to certainty.

TERMS.
The Banner will be published (if the subscription should justify it) from the 1st of May until the election in November, at the moderate price of $2 per copy. Individuals sending the money for 10 subscribers free of postage will be entitled to one copy gratis.
Cash required invariably in advance.

THE EMPIRE STATE.
JANUARY 1, 1840.
PROSPECTUS.

DETERMINED to make adequate returns for the liberal and increasing encouragement given to this paper, which bears aloft the Name and defends the Honor and Interests of the EMPIRE STATE—the publishers propose, on the commencement of the year 1840, to issue this paper in the following form, on an enlarged sheet of the Mammoth Size, to exceed in size and style of execution, any weekly newspaper published in this city or country. The most ample arrangements are making to give to the paper all those attractions, as a well conducted Political, Literary and Miscellaneous Journal, which the intelligence and good taste of the present age require. In its arrangement and execution, and the amount of reading matter it will contain, as well as in its early and faithful record of News, foreign and domestic, local and general, the EMPIRE STATE will be unequalled. It will remain staunch, as it ever has been, in support of sound Democratic Whig Principles—an advocate of Public and Private Economy, Public and Private Virtue, Equal Rights and Equal Laws. And in catering for the general reader, we shall spare no pains or expense to render the paper attractive, valuable and useful. The choicest selections will be regularly made from the current Literature of the day, together with ample original contributions from the pens of able and practised writers.

TERMS OF THE EMPIRE STATE.
ENLARGED SERIES.
1. The paper will be published on a Mammoth folio sheet, on paper of superior quality, and beautiful type.
2. The price will be $2.50 per annum—in all cases in advance. No paper sent until the money is received; and no subscriptions received for a less term than six months.
3. Those who are now subscribers, or wish to avail themselves of the privilege of the present terms, may do so by enclosing $3 at any time prior to the 1st January, 1840, and the paper will be sent for one year. After that date, the terms will invariably be $2.50 per annum, in advance.
4. Editors with whom we exchange requested to give the above one or two insertions.
Business letters should be addressed to

SOCIAL HALL.
THIS new establishment is situated south of the public square, in the town of LEXINGTON, MISS., and is open for the reception of travellers and boarders. The subscriber is improving and will continue to improve his house until he makes it comfortable; and he assures those who may call on him, that all his energies shall be put in requisition for their comfort and convenience. He will be governed in his charges by the rates usually exacted.
Our charge for instance—man and horse per night, with supper and breakfast $2.
All others in proportion.
As before observed, if he fails to render those comfortable who may call on him, it shall be the want of ability and not inclination. The Social Hall is retired, and no intemperance or disorder will be permitted about it.

New Sporting and Agricultural Publications.

DEAR SIR, Mr. Porter, editor and proprietor of the New York "Spirit of the Times," the only newspaper dedicated to Sporting, published here, having refused to give our prospectus a place in that paper, or even a short notice as common advertisement, although tendered payment; we are consequently constrained to issue a circular, one of which we have taken the liberty of forwarding to you, and solicit your patronage and that of your friends.
CADWALLADER R. CODEN & CO.
Office No. 106 Fulton Street, N. Y.
February 25th, 1839.

To all Sportsmen and Supporters of the Turf, Breeders of Blood Horses, of Improved Cattle and Sheep, Planters, Farmers, Agriculturists, and the public in general.

THE WHIP.
Under the above title, will appear, on the first Monday in May next, a weekly newspaper, dedicated to Sporting, Agriculture, and Rural Pursuits and Recreations in general, blended with Dramatic Notices, Green Room Intelligence, Police Reports of moment, Passing Events of Interest, with a glance at the Fashionable Life of the day.

This weekly paper, though published in connection with a Sporting and Agricultural Magazine, as an auxiliary or adjunct sheet, thrown up weekly, with intent to put subscribers to the Magazine in possession of all sporting and agricultural intelligence, and passing occurrences, at an earlier date than the monthly periodical might be able to furnish the same, without any additional charge than the subscription to the latter; nevertheless, subscriptions to this weekly publication will be received, apart from that to the Magazine, at five dollars per annum, payable in advance.

SPORTING AND AGRICULTURAL MAGAZINE.
This periodical will appear on the first day of June next, and thereafter be issued in numbers, on the first day of every month. Six numbers to constitute the semi-annual volume. Each number will contain four sheets, or sixty-four pages, occasionally more. To each number will be appended accounts of both American and English Racing, forming correct and complete Race Calendars of each. The whole matter, thus embraced by five numbers, will comprise from five to six sheets, i. e. from eighty to ninety-six pages. It will be printed in octavo form, upon handsome paper.

Each number will be embellished with engravings, upon copper or steel, of the portraits of distinguished horses, celebrated cattle, and representations of other things or subjects of interest.

Although subscriptions in advance will be exacted, yet such will not be exacted until the volume shall have been furnished.

TERMS—$5 for the semi-annual volume of six numbers, (equal to $10 per annum) payable on the completion of each volume.

To those who subscribe for the Magazine, the weekly newspaper will also be sent as an adjust sheet, without any additional charge. Thus subscribers to the former, will have the benefit of both for $5 payable semi-annually. The latter, being in possession of the Magazine, will be put in possession of transient news, sporting and general intelligence of the day, at as early a period as can be given by any daily print.

It must be evident that a work of the magnitude and got up in the style proposed, cannot be afforded (apart from any auxiliary publication) where talent is employed, at less than $5 semi-annually, but the sportsmen satisfied that a weekly publication which gives to the public the intelligence, passing events and matter of moment, no matter how frivolous its general contents, must retard the circulation of a monthly periodical, and determined to furnish the earliest and most instructive sheet. By the mode proposed, subscribers will derive this further advantage. That as the weekly paper will contain accounts of all races in calendar form, as they from time to time come off, notices of races to come, weekly open or closed, market prices of horses, and other current intelligence, and a multiplicity of the like, not requiring to carry into the Magazine as matter of record or reference, its pages thus divested of much extraneous matter, with which they were otherwise burdened, and the more necessary, be clogged, will have the more room for that which is entertaining or instructive and thereby be rendered a work of greater interest.

THE SPORTING AND AGRICULTURAL MAGAZINE, will (as its title implies) be dedicated to the Turf and all other Field sports; veterinary science, agriculture in all its branches; rural recreations and pursuits generally. Will treat upon subjects, their different kinds of cultivation, the art of training, raising or breaking for the turf, the field and road. Upon Cattle, their various kinds and peculiar properties; sheep and other domestic animals. Upon soils, tillage, manures, rotation of crops, draining canals, and implement of husbandry, application of power in agriculture, and an explanation of novel inventions and improvements, and all such other matters as may offer to amuse or instruct.

That an efficient Magazine of sporting as well as agriculture is at this time a great desideratum, none can doubt; upon the latter subject we have not increased with a rapidity altogether unexpected in the history of this periodical. Our friends are more numerous, our resources more ample, and our exertions to render the Mirror one of the most interesting and valuable repositories of literature and the fine arts, shall be as unremitting as ever.

Our old correspondents will continue to furnish original papers of great variety of subjects interesting to the general reader; and new writers have been engaged for special purposes. At home we have a list of nearly two hundred contributors, embracing most of the talent and genius of America, and we have established a permanent correspondence abroad. Mr. Cox will write from London—Mr. May from Berlin—and an American gentleman, who holds a high rank in the estimation of his countrymen as a great and an excellent writer, will furnish us with occasional sketches from Paris.

In the course of the volume, fifty pieces of popular music will be published—selected by Messrs.
BRIDGES, HORN, RUSSELL, KENTZ, &c.

SIXTY-SEVEN ENGRAVINGS, (including the two issued with the present volume) will be given, engraved by DUMAS, PARRIS, &c., from original designs and portraits by WINE, INGRAM, CHAPMAN, &c.

A number of CRAYONS, executed on wood will also be published in the present volume, engraved by ADAMS, ANDERMAN, JONASTON, &c., from original designs.

Nothing shall be left undone to render this work, in its literary character, its engravings, its music and its typography, if not superior, to any periodical of the day.

A number of literary novelties, curious historical legends, a collection of humors, and Indian traditions, are already in preparation. Indeed, every subject within the range of literature or the fine arts is embraced in its plan; and it has received the commendation of the press throughout the United States and Great Britain, and is refined and elegant repository of the belles lettres.

In catering for the general taste, we shall never omit to set aside a due proportion of space for the special amusement and edification of the ladies of America, in the sunshine of whose favour the Mirror has so long flourished as a favorite journal.

We presume that the reader will freely admit, that a work embracing an immense variety of topics, containing most of it expressly written for its columns—containing engravings on steel with copious selections of exquisite music, beautifully printed—altogether forming and comprising a volume of four hundred and sixteen pages, at the trifling subscription of five dollars per annum, is a work of no ordinary value.

It is not our intention to publish it at a price undermined in cheapness by any periodical ever published in any country.

CADWALLADER R. CODEN, & CO.
Publishers.

The Empire State.

(SUCCESSOR TO THE WEEKLY WHIG.) Will be published every Thursday morning, at 102 Nassau St. New-York.

The publishers of the New-York Daily Whig propose heretofore to issue their weekly paper under the title of "The Empire State." No change will be made in the size or form of the paper; it will contain the full reading matter of six daily papers, and will be regularly forwarded to all its numerous patrons, in the same manner as it no change had taken place. Improvements in the mechanical execution of the paper are contemplated, corresponding with the increase of patronage which the publishers hope to receive under this new arrangement.

The paper will be under the editorial management of HORACE GREELY and JAMES B. MOORE, the former of whom will attend to the Political Department, and the latter will devote his attention to the Literary and Miscellaneous portions of the paper—the design being to make "THE EMPIRE STATE" not only a spirited and valuable political journal, but by increasing its attractions as a Family Newspaper, to render it worthy of a more extended patronage. The aid of gentlemen known as approved and able champions of the whig cause, has been promised, and the editors feel assured, that if ardent zeal, untiring energy, and unflinching resolution, joined to some experience as soldiers in the army and sentinels on the ramparts of Freedom, can ensure success, "THE EMPIRE STATE" shall fall behind none of its contemporaries in service to the cause of Liberty and Prosperity.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum, in advance —a price which, considering the amount of reading matter in its columns, renders the EMPIRE STATE one of the cheapest Family Newspapers in the country.

The New-Yorker.
The publishers of the New-Yorker respectfully announce the commencement of a new Volume of their journal on the 21st of September next, being the eighth of the double Quarto Edition, and completing the Sixth year of its publication in the folio or common newspaper form.

The New-Yorker is now so widely known as to render superfluous any detailed delineation of its character and objects. Suffice it to say that, this paper is intended to sustain the general and inferior in ability a Weekly Literary Journal, and standing to any on either side of the Atlantic.
About two-thirds of its columns are devoted to the best Original and Selected Literature, comprising Reviews, Essays (Scientific and Literary), Tales, Poems, choice extracts from New Works, Biographical and Historical Notices, &c. &c. In republican and Historical Notices of nearly all publications of interest will be given. The remarking columns will be devoted to a condensed abstract of the Political and General Intelligence of the day, Domestic and Foreign. Under this head, there will fall all important Elections, and the United States will be carefully compiled and compared with those of former Elections, so as to give a clear exhibit of the relative strength of each political party in the several States. All the general and important movements of the political movements of interest will likewise be briefly and impartially chronicled. In fine, it will be instructive and agreeable and entertaining.

The steady support through the last three years of an average of more than 8,000 subscribers, warrants the belief that the conduct of the paper, will not disappoint the hopes of its friends, while it has secured the decided approval of an intelligent public. Such as has been it will continue to be, with the exception of the additional already secured in its Editorial department, to which it is hoped that the character of the workman will elevate the character of the workman away anything, the undersigned are justified in cherishing a confidence that their journal will at any rate maintain the standing it has already attained in the public estimation.

H. GREELY & CO.

Yorker as issued every Saturday evening on a of which one is given in each number. This edition is afforded to subscribers at Four Dollars per

with copious selections of exquisite music, beau-
ing a volume of four hundred and sixteen pages, at
per annum, is a work of no ordinary value.

any country.

CADWALLADER R. CODEN, & CO.
Publishers.

Brother Jonathan.

WORLD.

THE proprietors of this mammoth sheet—the "Great Western" among the newspapers—have the pleasure of spreading before the reading public a weekly, periodical containing a greater amount and variety of useful and entertaining miscellany, than is to be found in any similar publication in the world.

Each number of the paper contains as large an amount of reading matter as is found in volumes of ordinary duodecimo, which cost $2—and more than is contained in a volume of Irving's Columbus, or Bancroft's History of America, which cost $3 a volume —and all for six cents a number, or three dollars a year.

BROTHER JONATHAN being a genuine Yankee, and thinking that some things can be done as well as others, is determined to present to his readers a MEDLEY hitherto unrivalled by any other paper of Anecdotes, Faces, Quiddities, Amusements, Geography, Romance, Allegories, History, Religion, Accidents, Jests, Sports, Biography, Learning, Spectacles,<
